

A vast Exhibition of Equestrian, Gymnastic crobatic and Zoological Wonders, As organized for the Season of 1853, will be found to surpass anything in the way of public amusements since the paimiest days of Ancient Greeien and Modern Games. The Entree of this monster Establishment in to each town will be signalized by a Grand public Gratuitous display, in which its entire resources will be brought into requisition to furnish a Gorgeous Triumphal Pageant of the most imposing character. Magnificent Chariots, Splendid Cars, Superb Horses, Costly Trimmings, and every accessory of grandeur and effect will be found comprised in this unparalleled specta-

The Performances, cannot be adequately described within the lim its of a newspaper advertisement. It is enough to state, that leaving the old stereotyped style of entertainments, every feature of the whole will be Eminently New and Attractive, introducing an unapproachable array of worldrenowned European and Native Artists, who have been engaged for months in the practice of the new and original Feats to be presented during each Exhibition. In connection with
